

Leolin Price CBE QC, MA (Oxon)

Call 1949 | QC 1968 | QC (Bahamas) 1969 | QC (New South Wales) 1987

Since 1968, Leolin Price has practised as Queen's Counsel specialising in Trusts, Property, Company Law, Commercial Law, Taxation, Charity and all the areas that fall within (and in many cases falling outside) the scope of Chancery practice.

He is Queen' Counsel in New South Wales and the Bahamas, is frequently consulted by clients from Singapore and Hong Kong and has argued cases in Kenya, the Isle of Man, the Bahamas, the British Virgin Islands and Gibraltar as well as in other overseas jurisdictions.

He has appeared in many important cases in the House of Lords and Privy Council and overseas including landmark cases in trust, company and tax law; conveyancing, landlord & tenant, university and professional negligence; about the relationship between the Courts and Parliament; the confidentiality of documents disclosed in civil and criminal proceedings; and immunity for what is said in the course of investigating crimes. His involvement in constitutional law and judicial review has taken him to court in cases involving the European Community, the Maastricht Treaty, education and the allocation of Lottery money. A list of the important cases that he has appeared in may be found by clicking on this link.

He is used as an arbitrator and is a member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and of the International Panel of Accredited Arbitrators of the Singapore International Arbitration Centre. He has recently completed a course for mediators. He has sat as a Deputy High Court Judge of the High Court of London.

He is a trustee of the Great Ormond Street Hospital and has been Chairman of the Institute of Child Health and Chancellor of the Diocese of Swansea and Brecon. Member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners.

---