

Naomi Winston, LLB (Leics)
Call – Middle Temple, 2006

Naomi was called to the bar in 2006 after graduating with a first class degree and the Paul Heim prize for best graduate intending to train and practice as a barrister. She spent the following year working as a research assistant in the Law Commission's Family, Property and Trust Team, largely focusing on the Easements, Covenants and Analogous Rights Consultation Paper. She joined Ten Old Square in 2008, following the successful completion of her pupillage.

Her practice covers a broad range of Chancery and commercial work, including litigation, contentious and non-contentious drafting and advisory work.

Naomi is a contributor to Tolley's Trust Drafting and Precedents and is responsible for the chapters relating to uses and types of trusts and termination of trusts.
