ELOISE CAREY

eloisecarey@tenoldsquare.com +44 (0)20 7405 0758

Eloise Carey supports the Senior Clerk and members of Chambers in the efficient day-to-day operation of Chambers' business. She is responsible for coordinating Chambers' regular programme of topical events and seminars, as well as organising in-house talks for professional clients on matters of shared interest.

Eloise also oversees Chambers' website and online presence and is often the first point of contact for callers and visitors to Chambers.

Eloise joined Chambers in May 2026, following the completion of her degree in Criminology and Sociology from the University of Nottingham. Prior to joining Chambers, she worked in the hospitality industry for three years, developing strong organisational and client service skills.
