Our Senior Clerk is responsible for the ongoing development of Chambers' business with our clients and the day-to-day management of our individual barrister's practices.

Keith has held that position for well over 30 years and he has been a barristers' clerk for over 40 years. He is currently the longest serving Senior Clerk in Lincoln's Inn.

His reputation for excellent client liaison, practice management and case placement is unsurpassed. The annual legal directories regularly heap praise on his efforts:

"Keith Plowman is the senior clerk and is a pleasure to work with. He is creative, proactive and provides an excellent service to all clients and customers of Ten Old Square."

(Legal 500)

"The clerking is first class: Keith is very responsive, helpful, pragmatic and sensible. He is a joy to deal with."

(Chambers UK)

The modern legal landscape is a complicated arena and Keith recognises that our professional clients need accurate information and assistance to enable them to deal with myriad considerations relating to manpower and costs.
